

Unobtrusively situated near a Maasai village, E Unoto Retreat is located in a secluded and natural spot in the plains outside Lake Manyara National Park, near the town of Mto wa Mbu. Easily accessible by road and air, it is approximately 120 kilometers southwest of Arusha, overlooking Lake Miwaleni and nestled against the Great Rift escarpment. It is centrally located to all the famous and well-known national parks: Serengeti Plains, Ngorongoro Crater, Tarangire Park and Mount Kilimanjaro.

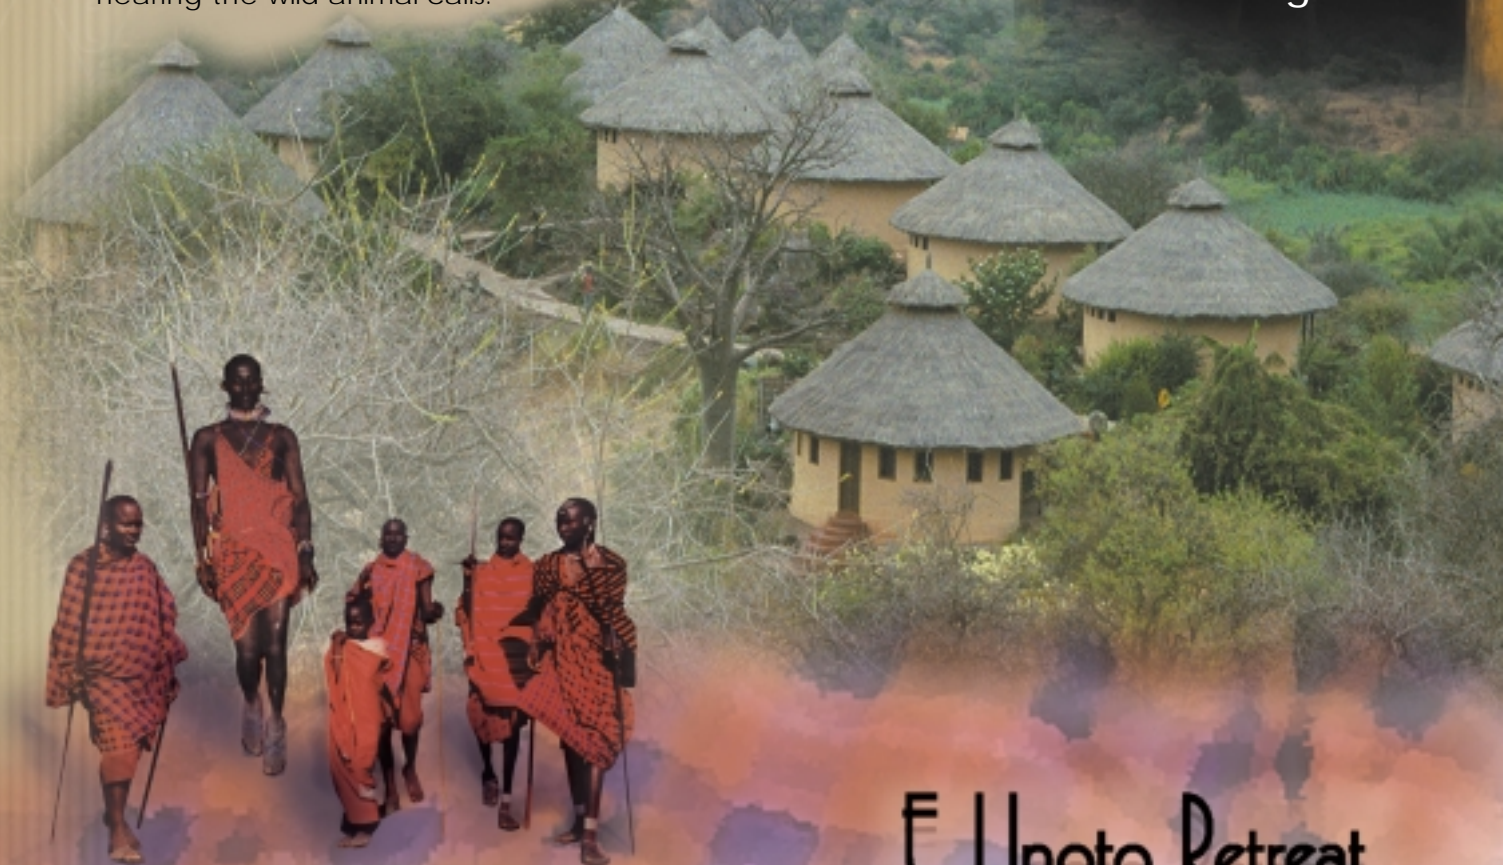

Maasai guides provide guests with a hike for a true experience. The secluded area is a haven for bird watchers, with more than 350 species native to the area. And yes, it is Africa! One can enjoy a driving safari less than 30 minutes from the lodge. The spectacular nights are perfect for viewing stars and hearing the wild animal calls.

"Tanzania Maasai"

E Unoto Retreat

This Tanzanian five-star safari lodge features 25 private bungalows, each with its own veranda. The spacious rooms, 28 ft. dia., are attractively furnished in Maasai style, locally carved, insuring an atmosphere that is both relaxing and very comfortable. Four of the bungalows are handicap friendly. Guests receive personalized butler service and are offered thoughtful accommodations suitable for any occasion; vacations, weddings, honeymoons, or meetings/seminars. Our Conference Center is well equipped and will handle groups of up to 50.

Sumptuous international cuisine is served from thatched, open-sided restaurant "clusters" overlooking the lake and swimming pool. Cocktails, conversations, and the lovely scenic views are enjoyed in open-sided bar areas.
